The UEA Excellence in Teaching Awards are presented each year to 10 Utah public school teachers whose efforts in the classroom have significantly impacted the life of an individual child or group of children. In 2024, 10 educators will each receive $1,500 and be honored at the Superstars in Education celebration in June 2024. The UEA began presenting these awards in 2000.

Eligibility: Nominations are accepted for licensed educators currently working in a Utah public school.

Selection: A selection committee that includes previous winners will review nominations following the nomination deadline. Winners will be notified by a UEA representative.

Deadline: Nominations must be submitted or postmarked by February 9, 2023. Nominations received after this date will not be considered.

Requirements:

- Those nominating must use the official nomination form, on reverse, or submit online at myUEA.org/Awards.
- If submitting a paper nomination, please use the space provided OR attach no more than one additional typewritten page. If submitting online, use 1,000 words or less.

“We encourage, support, and celebrate the nominations of Black, Latin/o/a/e, Asian American, Indigenous, and Pacific Islander educators; as well as LGBTQIA+ educators, veterans, people living with disabilities, and other educators with lived experience being part of marginalized communities.”
